

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Daniel McFate, I recently went back to being a Wiccan as a religion in which brought the, "Moon over the water fall" into mind because of a book titled drawing down the moon.

The second piece called, "What's that?" Who doesn't like Dragons.

The third piece, "Temptress" is a depiction of the type of woman that I used to want in my life in which has faded over time and maturity.
