

Dutch

229-20, 230-20

Untitled, Fox

My inspiration comes from nature, circumstances of life, other artists, and personal emotions that I don't know how else to express. My art attempts to give shape to my abstract thoughts. Through my paintings, I try to make those things tangible, share them, and hope to make a connection with others. I truly hope you can find something about my art that you can enjoy.