

Artist Name: Aaron Rose

I enjoy making art, which probably goes without saying. I received a couple of letters from the exhibit last year and it meant so much to hear what they thought. One of them wished I would sell some of my paintings and I wish that I could. I wish that I could just give each one who enjoys my paintings their own. To me the gift is in the giving and it is one part of the painting process that gives me joy. That is why I do not sell my paintings. I do it for the enjoyment for myself and for others. If you could find a way for me to paint something for you I would happily do so. If I painted for money I am not sure that I would receive the reward I do now. Anyway I am continuing to look for ways to grow and expand my ability and your encouragement means so much to me. Thank you for supporting me and PCAP. Without you none of this would be possible. If you have any suggestions that would improve my paintings please share with me what you think. Again thank you for such kind words I have saved your letters and will take them with me wherever I may go.
