Newberry

Thoughts collide with words.

Ink to sheets of paper.

Letters into sentences beyond what the pen may write.

Write words to you,

Maybe of you.

Where Pen meets paper.

Things unsaid expressed.

You're in every paragraph.

A Kaleidoscope of Hope Addressed.

The lines circle, straight, curved. to form

Form words of Lost, of Love,

Nothing but you,

me!

When Pens and Paper meet.

Address, confront, express to form words

Love, Hate, Lost, Hope.

If said Right, written with it

Having Pen and Paper ..... Says it All!
