

Armand

819-20

LaTrice

I never pick up a pencil or any drawing tools until I was here in prison; I wanted to challenge myself to do something creative and different. So after a year of practice I did lots of mistakes on smaller drawings. I was inspired to draw "LaTrice" a family member who was diagnosed with stage 3 breast cancer. The puzzle pieces represent life being put back together again by God.