Be That Glimmer

Art gives me an opportunity to learn.
to learn about art, other people, and myself.
As an outlet for my emotion, understanding and Creativity. When I look at a blank sheet of paper or canvas I see myself.
There is a lot of work involved in creating something just like myself if I rush and cut corners the piece will not be complete. The more work and detail I put in the better the outcome. Thank you for joining me on this quest.
