I WONDER

i wonder - Why do love feel closer from a distance?
i wonder - why did I have to come to prison to take a family picture?
i Wonder- WHY did it take dark days for God to get my attention?
i Wonder - if I never left the streets would I ever gotten over my addictions? I wonder

These are the things that race over and over in my head.
reading the bible since 10
but after 20 years I finally understand
I sit back and I wonder - what if I never came to jail I wonder
I probably be on my way to jail or a one way flight to hell I Wonder

I wonder - if God gave me the task of Moses could I have led my people out of bondage?
or if I was Paul how could I keep killing Christians off my conscious?
I wonder What if I was Jesus? would I been willing to Die for everyone else nonsense?
with God WHO strengthens me I can do the works of great apostles and prophets sometimes i wonder - because this life I live in the flesh when i should live in faith with no worries or stress

I been fighting for years to clean up my mess but something's just not up to me to correct i do what i can and let him do the rest so i wonder who am I to wonder? God knows what's best
