I wanted to work with the wood and rocks to see what my mind could really come up with.

1). I thought of my faith, so I built a small ^{church} house for God. I made it a piggy bank, so when money is placed in it, we can think of the true price of redemption.

2). I made a wooden piggy bank house that would show its ~~sub~~ beauty, as well as its strenght to last for year to come.

3). To make a miniature gazebo is a challenge within it's self, but my mind was up to the task and what you can see is a beautiful piece to view.
