I Dream of Angels But Live with Demons

I've been drawing for almost 24 years.
I use my art as a way of escaping the world. Everything fades away and I get lost in my own fantasies. I put my all into my art. I believe that if you're not passionate about what you do it shows in your work. Therefore, I approach every drawing as if it's ~~the~~ personal. ~~piece~~ I think of how I want it to look if it's hanging ~~it~~ on my wall. If someone likes it then I know I've done something right. If not, at least I still like it.
