Queen of Misery

Without Art I feel the world wouldn't have any meaning. Due to the fact that to a lot of people. It's their escape from reality. Including me. Art to me is everything. It's how I cope with emotions and feelings. It's how I am able to express myself. I hope one day I will be able to go somewhere with my Art. until then I will continue to do what I do best and keep drawing and showing the world who I am through my Artwork. And hopefully My uncles Barry and Adam Lauterwasser will be able to find me.
