

Title: (Mom) Remembering Devils Night
I discovered that by making tiny pieces of Art that it gave me comfort that I haven't felt in years along with memories of my mom, it gave me peace, sadness and happy tears, and I then discovered that it brings me joy to make something unique and beautiful.

I wanted my life story to be told just by holding my art project in the palm of my hands. This was a way for me to grieve my mom.

Most times Art is the only way for my heart to be happy, I wanted to show that big things come in such tiny packages.
