

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Jason "Baby Joker" Rivera

When I work on a Drawing I put all of my heart in to them. Seeing the look on peoples faces and making them happy is why I do this. My father is the reason I draw, when I was a kid he would draw for my Brothers and I. He was a big influence after he showed me how to draw I couldn't stop. I thank God for the gift of being a artist and Im very grateful. One day I hope to be a great Chicano Artist. So that other latinos know that We can do anything and reach places like no other. Thank you for letting me participate in the PCAP gallery.
