

Artist Name: -SALTY- aka David Soltysiak

Although I have always liked to draw, I have never thought of myself as being artistically talented. After being incarcerated for more than 6 years I decided to do something about it. I took an inmate led Beginners art class and discovered a passion for art. While my style and skills are still in their infant stage, I feel like my talent has greatly improved.

Art is a great release. I have found that self expression is what was missing from my life. I hope that I am eventually able to give back to the art community as it has given me so much.

I have always been a huge fan of the works of Salvador Dali and M.C. Escher. The surrealistic nature of their works and the 3D characteristic have been great inspiration.
