

Artist Name: Ross Oliver (Luciano Rossi)

I know, why the two names? Obviously I was born Ross Michael Oliver, the name my parents gave me. All my adolescent years I loved the mob stories, old time gangsters and the allure of it. The closest thing I could do was make a fictional name and make my social media name Luciano Rossi. Most people have called me Rossy all my life. I sometimes sign my real name on paintings, but with PCAP, its all been under Luciano Rossi.

I Love PCAP so much & I am so grateful & thankful for these opportunities! I love painting, there is so much freedom within it. Next year will be even better. Thank you, everyone of you who work so hard at collecting all the art, traveling back & forth to facilities, displaying & giving us all a voice through our art. Much Love & Respect, sincerely Ross Oliver
