

Artist Statement — 30th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Dayleisha Henderson

For me art is a healthy outlet. It's my real therapy sessions and I can express everything I feel inside that I can't seem to put in to words sometimes Abstract art is my favorite art to do because each person see something different. My feelings in the moment dictate the colors, materials and what I make.