I like to draw things that has hidden symbolism. The use of my prison call-outs has symbolism, certain dates etc. I will not disclose everything when it comes to my art because I want the viewers to come up with their own perspective. I will share this though, one reason I do my art on my call-out is because on one side I'm nothing more, just a name and number that must obey the call-out but on the back, the flip side if you must I give a glimpse of my true self if just for a moment. You know what they say about a picture. "It contains a thousand words."

Mortal as I am, I know that I am born for a day. But when I follow at my pleasure the serried multitude of the stars in their circular course, my feet no longer touch the earth. — Ptolemy
