My Art is Always Done on Black Boards with Bright Colors, And When I ^{ed} ~~Painting~~ Washing Away Time, I Did This Feeling Like how Life is. We have NO Time to Do what we want to Do, But Never make Time to talk to Love ones, But when The people we Love ~~Use~~ go's away, we Hate Are self, For Not making The Time ~~that we want to~~ to tell Them we Love Them

we face Life with A Time Limit, That one Day we must past, to Look Back in are Lives, And Asking "I can't Believe It's Been That Long," we see people Always In A Rush, But never see The ~~Beauty~~ Beautiful world, we see Life past and go, But never Stop And Do The ~~ten~~ Things we wanted to Do.

so If we WASH AWAY Time, And see That Time is Not Their, we will take Time to ~~so~~ Stop And enjoy The ~~the~~ Blessing of This world. But when we have Time Alive In are Life, we Are Never going to make Time for are self and The people That Love USE, So when you look At This painting and Ask your self, what have I miss out, when I Ran out of Time? And

So tell The ones you Love everything you need to Before They go, And make Time for your self, to get to know your self. But must Important,

Look ~~at~~ A Round in see The Beauty of This world and The good people in it, ~~But~~ ~~Because~~ Because you never know There Might Not have A tomorrow To enjoy It, For we Ran out of Time.
