

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name:

Jill B. Day

THIS YEAR I CONTINUE TO EXPERIMENT WITH MY ACRYLICS AND VARIOUS WATERCOLORS. I ALSO USED A TECHNIQUE ON ONE PIECE AS I DID LAST YEAR AND I AM VERY PLEASED. OVER THE YEARS WITH PCAP I HAVE SEEN MY CONFIDENCE AND SKILLS GROW IN MANY WAYS. KIMIKO UYEDA AND SUSAN BROWN HAVE BEEN MARVELOUS MENTORS, FRIENDS AND A HUGE SOURCE OF INSPIRATION. THANK YOU. THANK YOU ALSO TO THE PCAP VOLUNTEERS WHO DONATE THEIR VALUABLE TIME TO SHARE AND REFLECT WITH ME. ART HAS BECOME A WAY TO REMOVE MYSELF FROM PRISON AND LOOK BEYOND THESE WALLS. WITH MY ART I SEEK TO BRING JOY, SMILES AND PEACE WITH THE ITEMS I PRODUCE. THEY HELP ME AND IT IS MY HOPE THEY HELP AND INSPIRE OTHERS.
