

Meir

470-20

What We Want vs What's Given

What we want vs. what we're given is inspired from Judge Dennis A. Challeen telling why prison fails.
I picked the words meaningful to me. All the white words is what society wants for the incarcerated the orange words is the reality of what we are given.
The blue and orange is a reflection of our uniforms.