

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Marcus

I'm going on my 28th year of incarceration and I never thought to put anything I've done in any kind of art show. I've always drawn and painted as an outlet to release anything that may be bothering me. I've always loved to draw as far back as I can remember. This piece being the brand I wish to create if ever I'm released. Drawing has lead to a new passion which is tattooing. The medium I chose is Scratch Board it is different from really anything that you see in any of these shows. I hope everyone enjoys my piece and the rest of the material in this show. The Owl was a insperation from my daughter.
