ADELITA, Virgen de Guadalupe

After almost 19 years of being locked up the disparity is clear. If you're poor then it doesn't matter. If I had money then I would've been home years ago. but since I don't I'm sentenced to die in here. It also seems like there is a war on my people. A country that was built on the backs of immigrants no longer wants any. The painting I did is a picture of "Adelita" who was a revolutionary. Regardless of race or religion people have to stand up for what is right. If you need help I will help you. Not because it benefits me but because you need it. So if you see someone being treated unjustly then help them.
