Dreaming Outside the Fence, After the Storm

A lot of my work comes from my love for the wilderness. I have my own rendition of what it looks like seeing it mainly on T.V. so as I store it in my memory it comes out in my dreams and eventually on paper or canvas. This year is my waterfall year. I learned how to paint on TV Ross, Yarnell. And my own painting style. My peace comes from my relationship with Jesus, and my confidence in my painting ability. I am in awe that God will allow me this kind of ability. I am so thankful. Well I am now down to 14 months. So have past my sight of home is soon to be fulfilled. Thanks PLAP for being here for us. God bless you all. Jeff
