

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: Christopher Roskey

I started teaching myself how to paint when covid started infecting America. With the help of P.B.S television and artists such as Bob Ross, Jerry Yarnell, Wilson Bickford, Buck Paulson and Roger Banermer, I suppose I learned at least a few things along the way. Recently I have been blessed to acquire some books to help accelerate my learning. It is my greatest hope to use this new outlet to stay out of prison and do something amazing with my life. God bless.
