

Artist Name: Matt Fuhrman

This painting represents my love for the Detroit Lions, the city of Detroit as well as the culture.

The Cartier "Buffs" (glasses) are a staple in Detroit and one of our many signature "Swags",

The Custom "D" chain also has the area code "313" inside it making it unique.

I hope who ever buys this has the love for Detroit that I do and makes this part of a man cave (or she shed!)

If not purchased, my son will love to hang it in his bedroom or wait for me to come home and put it in our game room.

Thank you PCAP for all your dedication, love & respect
