Mi Vida Loca, Evolution

I started drawing young since I can remember I have always prefer pencil for drawing most of my pictures, I grew up around a lot of talent most uncles use to aircspray there lowriders so it inspired me to do the same, I picked up a pencil & paper and it became a part of me I have always drawn about things that there happening in the world today or even the past. I was born in Mexico so I came from a lot of culture so every drawing comes from my heart & soul, so I send this piece to tell a lil bout my life. call this piece "Mi Vida Loca" (My crazy life) Hope people enjoy to see some of the art and talent we have no matter the place your at.
