

Artist Name: Cali Boi

I make art for one of three reasons. To raise awareness for social issues like racism, bullying, etc., to relieve my own anxiety and depression, or to just have some fun. In the past I mainly did drawings but I recently broke my neck and had to change art styles due to shaking in my hands. I try to pick colors and designs that reflect myself. I'm a member of the LGBTQ+ community so I often include the rainbow in my artwork.

Doing the headwork for this year's projects was like my physical therapy. Often times it was very frustrating but, in the end, the results were worth the effort. All in all I hope you see that we need to be proud of who we are and stand up to discrimination of all types when you see my art.
