

Joseph Ahn

293-20

Hope

~~It~~ I wanted to have this painting represent hope & family as I went through my prison bit. After some years incarcerated, I came to the realization my family was also incarcerated with me from an emotional & spiritual aspect, The flowers were a representation of me as I held onto hope or my family who figuratively remained behind bars with me.