

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Perris Cox

I love art. It is a great passion that I have painting, drawing, even writing. I spend most of my time writing on my own book series called Unveiled. I'm hoping that my first book, a New Era will be published by the end of 2023. I'm grateful for the University of Michigan to come out every year. It gives us some hope to stay connected with the outside world
