

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Thomas Sells #959061

I chose to paint Pigs because one I like pigs and second I'm reminded of a place where I would go to when I was growing up in the south and would always see a family of pigs hanging out waiting for food. I choose the point style because I like that its not a common style of art. It took along time to do but it was fun and got my mind away from where I'm currently at for a spell.
