

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Nicolas Troy Brateler

When I start to draw I close out my mind at where im at. Then I open my mind so it's clear and opened mindend. I go into deep thought and draw what im feeling and start putting it on paper. When I draw I feel that im a free man. I feel like im not even locked up or even when im free I just feel like im in another world. Thank you for your time...
