

Danny Shelton

42-20

Simple Living

I would like, one day, to be able to experience the peace and tranquility of my own little cabin in the woods. This represents the simplicity of the image in my mind.

Although this model is created with simply paper, glue, and coffee (for coloring) it is an accurate representation of what I would like to build in my future and maybe retire to.