

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Sofia Solano

Life is full of obstacles and challenges. Many times we find ourselves feeling trapped or suffocated. As outsiders looking into another's situation we can have many opinions. ~~It~~ I believe the objective to it all is to recognize and appreciate the true beauty lying at every thought, decision + outcome. Art gives me an avenue to express the beauty I see being trapped in a society where hate is promoted. The treasures we carry lay within our beautiful souls.
