

Artist Name: Rocky Schroeder

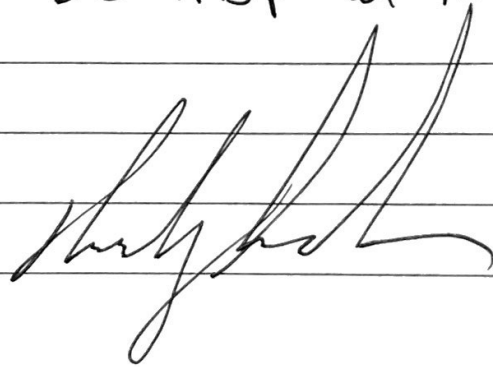

My paintings mean a lot to me.

I have put countless amounts of hours into becoming the artist I am today. I like seeing and hearing the enjoyment my pieces bring to people.

I never expected to get this far into art and I never expected it to impact my life and those around me in such a positive way!

Art takes my mind out of prison and puts it in such a positive place. Another thing I didn't expect.

I hope that everyone that ~~see's~~ sees my art will be inspired to try it for themselves.
