

Artist Name: Jerry Hunt

I started painting 5 years ago here in prison. I love to draw and paint. I even teach others at this point.

This year I have been looking more at abstract art. I am usually not a big fan of the art form, but because of some political pieces I have a growing interest.

I feel this is a huge stress relief and helps me to get out of prison in my mind and explore a new world. I have about a year left for the minimum on my sentence, and I hope to continue in the free-world and even come to the ~~exhibit~~ exhibit myself.
