

Artist Name: Michels, William

I've loved art my whole life. Paintings, sculptures you name it, it fascinates me. I drew in high school, and I wasn't too bad at it but for many many years I have done nothing artistic until someone informed me about "Pcap". I've been submitting art work for three years, this will be my fourth. I brought over drawings mostly, last year I took some three dimensional art work over, but this year I took it upon myself to buy some paints, brushes, and an art pad so I could try something I've always wanted to try, ABSTRACT painting. Some of my work seems a little amateurish because it's my first time trying it, but not to toot my own horn, I truly believe I have one piece that is gallery quality. It's done on a 12x16 Canvas board with acrylic and colored pens. when I look at it, it just ~~seems~~ ^{seems} like real art to me for the first time. I just ordered a bunch of new art materials to keep moving forward with my new found love of abstract, it sets me free ^{where I'm} painting them.

Thank you all for getting me to this point. Bill!!
