

Artist Name: Miguel Vidana

This painting was created from a dream I had about two years ago. I was going through some hard times, so I knelt down and prayed. That night I had this dream which I remember vividly. Every time challenges arise, I think of this dream, which reminds me of complete freedom.