

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: ARTHUR E. HARRIGER - To me painting expresses the heart. The feeling of joy, happiness and freedom, I try to express in each piece. See Here Love of Life, I strive to create a more real Lifelike painting. I want to see myself in each piece. I want the same for you. My paintings reflect the inner joy I have and I hope it comes thru. I have been drawing something on and off my whole life. I still remember running up to mother with pencil in one hand and eraser in the other. She always gave me a sheet of baking paper. My love and commitment to creating will last until I die. ~~Enjoy~~ the view. Thank all for your positive encouraging statements.
