Artist Name: Hatage

Hatage is a verb for anything, especially creative arts and beautiful artist momentum for exclusive pieces of art. I have been artist since the day I was born. My mother past her gift down to me for my talent and creativity and my love for Art. Without her, none of my talent would be possible. My piece I am displaying today, is a classic Halloween joy for all ages. The community of scary monsters from our post do a concert, performing for all the individuals who have survived their horror for many many Halloweens. Please enjoy Micheal Myers, Charles Lee Ray, A.K.A "Chucky," and Freddy, as they "play" our favorite songs, brought to you all by "Good Guy Productions," Meet the newly established band "The Slashers"<sup>TM</sup>
Enjoy and Happy Halloween
