

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Matthew Gillies

The artist within has always been there, but as life moved forward my art took a back seat. Through this new season of life I have found strength and confidence that was once lost. I am learning to live again and bringing my artistic side out is helping me express myself. I now look forward to my future and I hope to connect with others who have found art as a place for rebirth. ~~and~~ There is healing in art, and I want/need all the healing I can get.
