Raven & Sorrow: 3.0 Adventure

Dungeons and Dragons is one of the few things in my life that makes me happy, by just looking at me most people don't even know I game or that I'm an Artist. I chose this as a theme for my last UoM art show before I go home after 15 long years. It connects me to other people, allowing me to express my creativity, ideas and intellect. The primary piece captured an oriental campaign played with my character Kenashimi: 悲 (Sorrow), Ninja/Duskblade with the Blade of Blood Kusarigama and Ravens character Mizu (water), Ninja/WuJen using a steam breath spell. Hence the title Raven and Sorrow: A 3.0 Adventure. My love for experiencing unique worlds come from Anime and Americana as well as pop culture and cinema.

As long as I have Art, I'm not alone, My imagination is something that they weren't able to take away from me.

PEACE and LOVE
