

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: V. Law

I guess inside of every Artist exist a "little forger", Some part of our creative hubris that gives us an insatiable need to recreate what nature and mankind already has...
So the saying "Art should imitate Life" suggest that we have permission to create, mock and abstract criminally good Artwork... no?! We all immediately recognize Art that stirs, Art that blurs lines and leaves us feeling like "damn, I wish I could do that!"... So my mission is to assist every viewer, critic and judge in becoming a "little forger" too ...
