"Art is life." How can it not be. I see the Universe as a vast and endless source of inspiration. The Sun, Moon, Planets and every other being and thing is something truly amazing. We all have the ability to tap into this well of inspiration. Sometimes it's Anger, or Sadness. Other times it's joy and happiness. And yet it can be any emotion or it is a smell or some other sense - touch, taste, sound, and smell... How then can I not make art in any form. This universe was meant to be expressed in any conceivable manner. To me my art allows the universe to speak, to show its beauty and at times its ugliness. But never the less it becomes tangible and capable of expressing both the seen and unseen states of this universe. I am its tool, its vessel, its hand, mouth, etc. And because I am part of the universe I am able to express my personal ~~emo~~ emotions and experiences as well and through that I become one with the universe and all that is in it.
