

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Chris Dankovich

These pieces are about changing mind, changing perception, and of finding a healthier way to live (or putting away and growing out of an unhealthy way).

- Evolution is about how we grow spiritually (Also, it is proof that tough guys can like butterflies).
- Moment by Moment is about how we get caught up in certain moments and fear, instead of accept, the "here and now"
- Ode to the Perseverance of Love is about how love can conquer and shatter all in its way (inspired by my girlfriend).
