I learned to paint in order to raise money for a expert on appeal. 10 years later my case has been remanded for a evidentiary hearing. On GPS evidence hidden, showing me ~~across~~ town at the same time the crime was being committed.

The justice system moves slow but hopefully I want make it to next years show. This show inspired me to create on a level I would have not absent it. I thank you for the support the people have shown with their contributions to making this all happen.

The honor has truly been mine.
