

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: Steve Sandison

I don't think my drawings are worth any thing - I just draw to find a place in my self to get away from the despair I feel. If people think what I do likeable and it moves some emotion bad or good then I'm happy -

People need to feel more to understand that be it good or bad we are all a part of this mad ride called life -
