I've been drawing and making holiday and greeting cards for about 5 yrs now. I recently drew this Medusa head because I like the darkness and ~~the~~ truth behind the Medusa. My mother has always been very nice but cold towards men who wronged her wether family or not. Women can be very enforcing in their glare when mad and my mother no different. I love her to "death" and she was happy to ~~see~~ hear that her glare scares me and makes me feel like I turned to stone. This is my first yr in the show but I plan to be in the next 6 shows. I appreciate the looks.
