

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: ~~James~~ Dearrion Tate

growing up as a kid in foster care shaped me into a very creative person I spent my time using my imagination to escape the world I live in my whole life I used art in every thing I do. I realized that even the way I speak is a art. I can say that I am art. I use my feelings to create my art work. My style come from how I view the world and I feel we all need a little color to make us happy
