

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Shawn Moore-Bey

This artwork is to inspire contemplation & open mindedness as to what we envision when we think of our creator; due to most of us being raised (religiously, academic wise, etc) in extreme Euro-misogynistic & culturally bias dogmatic ideologies. Added (on the locs in this art) is the 12 zodiac symbols, which deals with the "science of the cosmos", because essentially, "God" has no religion. Furthermore, the drawing is in honor of the oldest known depiction of God, which is a statue of a wide hipped, super dark skinned African woman, with wooly hair. My version, unique to my imagination honors the "Divine Feminine" that's in all of us.
