

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Rodney Burger

As an artist I don't even understand some of my own work; I simply move the pencil along, using beauty to invoke emotion and gore to serve emphasis. Only when a drawing nears completion does it begin to adopt serious meaning.

So challenge your mind to reach a unique conclusion based upon your interpretation; rather than try identify the intent of another.

The beauty of art comes from the mystery that lives within every piece. That mystery, which occasionally inspires eons of speculation, is born from shifting energies whose origin is impossible to reconstruct.

Thank You.

Please edit your Artist Statement to fit the space provided.