Country-Western Ants #Rodeo

my name is Cody. This piece is called '(Country-western ants #Rodeo)
I entered PCAP last year, but this year I feel more confident.
I have only been taking my art seriously for around 2 years now. I picked the pencils up while incarcerated. I love to draw, it takes me away and I love to draw pieces that I like to look at. this piece comes from a lifelong interest in being super small. I used to imagine I was small and could scale a ~~oo~~ wrinkle in my comforter blanket like a mountain, or get lost in the carpet as if it was a jungle, ride an ant or fly on a bumble bee! So I mixed that interest with my love for the rodeo, and old western style life!
I used ants because they just seemed to fit in the piece I love the strength of an ant! And they are fairly social insects! I hope you enjoy this piece as much as I did. It will be the last in this series. I will keep going with the "Country-western ants."

Thank you for taking time to appreciate the art from PCAP! It means a lot to us!
